

Resources

Emotional Health and Addiction Services	Health Care Services	Financial Assistance & Housing	Legal	Academic	Services for Individualized Needs	Other
 WSU Counseling and Psychological Services	 WSU Health and Wellness Services (HWS)	 Student Financial Services	 ASWSU's Student Legal Services	 WSU Academic Success and Career Center	 WSU Access Center- disability accommodation	 WSU Ombudsman
 WSU Dean of Students Office	Freeclinicdirectory.org	 WSU Student Accounts	Whitman County Legal Services- Volunteer Lawyer Programs	 WSU Undergraduate Writing Center	 WSU Gender Identity/Expression and Sexual Orientation Resource Center (GIESORC)- LGBTQ community	 WSU Office for Equal Opportunity (OEO)- harassment, sexual misconduct, and discrimination
Alternatives to Violence of the Palouse & Crime Victims Service Center (ATVP & CVSC)	Planned Parenthood	 WSU TRiO Student Support Services	Alternatives to Violence of the Palouse & Crime Victims Service Center (ATVP & CVSC)	 WSU Math Learning Center	 WSU Graduate School	 WSU Dean of Students Office
Palouse River Counseling	Pullman Regional Hospital	 WSU Dean of Students Office	Whitman County Child Support and Victim/Witness program	 WSU eTutoring	 WSU Office of Veterans Affairs
The Washington State Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS)	The Washington State Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS)	Whitman County Community Action Center	Northwest Justice Project- CLEAR	 WSU Dean of Students Office (DOS)	 WSU Multicultural Student Services
	Snake River Clinic	The Washington State Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS)		 WSU Multicultural Student Services	 WSU International Student Services
	Palouse Free Clinic	Alternatives to Violence of the Palouse & Crime Victims Service Center (ATVP & CVSC)		 WSU TRiO Student Support Services
		Sojourner's Alliance

Please be advised that not all resources are confidential. A confidential resource is one that can discuss your concerns with you privately and is not obligated to report to authorities. Legally, there are a few exceptions to confidentiality; those exceptions are abuse of a child or vulnerable adult and imminent harm to self or others. Most of the non-confidential resources do have policies in place to keep your information as private as possible. If you are concerned about confidentiality, please make sure to ask about policies before disclosing any information you do not want shared. Confidential resources are indicated by an *

Academic Success and Career Center (ACSS)

ACSS offers a wide-variety of structured services that aid student success. These include academic advising, peer tutoring, and academic success coaching. 509-335-6000

<https://ascc.wsu.edu/>

Access Center

The Access Center provides accommodations and services to incoming and current WSU students with disabilities, psychological or medical conditions, or temporary injuries that limit their access to the educational environment. 509-335-3417

<https://accesscenter.wsu.edu/>

Alternatives to Violence of the Palouse (ATVP) & Crime Victim Service Center (CVSC)

ATVP provides 24 hour emergency and supportive services to family, dating, and sexual violence victims and survivors and their children. Services are available for concerned, supportive family members, friends and community members. ATVP offers a 24 hour hotline, individual support, support groups, legal and medical advocacy, and a confidential shelter. All services are provided free of charge, in confidence and without discrimination. ATVP houses the Region 8 CVSC which offers many of these services to victims of all crime. 1-877-334-2887 or 1-509-332-HELP(4357)

<http://atvp.org/>

Community Action Center (CAC)

CAC offers emergency housing and financial services, assistance in obtaining long-term housing assistance, a community food bank, energy assistance, and emergency transportation assistance. 509-334-9147

<http://www.cacwhitman.com/>

Counseling and Psychological Services

Counseling and Psychological Services seeks to promote the intellectual, emotional and social growth and development of WSU students. We offer individual, couple and group counseling, psychological testing, drug & alcohol services, self-help and 24/7 crisis counseling.

During normal business hours

Come in to Counseling and Psychological Services or call 509-335-4511.

After hours, weekends and holidays

Call 509-335-2159 for evening and weekend crisis services.

<http://counsel.wsu.edu/>

Dean of Student's Office (DOS)

The WSU Office of the Dean of Students connects students with the services, opportunities, and resources to foster their success at WSU and after graduation. By working with university and community partners, they advise students about services, resources, and options that support their success and provide guidance and assistance during times of challenge, crisis, complexity or emergency. 509-335-5757

<https://deanofstudents.wsu.edu/>

The Washington State Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS)

DSHS has a wide range of services available, including, but not limited to, food, cash, medical and housing assistance, mental health and addiction services, and emergency financial assistance. 1-800-737-0617

For more information, or to apply on-line, visit: <https://www.dshs.wa.gov/>

eTutoring

WSU is a member of the Northwest eTutoring Consortium, and WSU students have 24 hour access to this on-line, chat based service. Through this service, tutoring is available for a wide variety of subject areas at any time of the day or night. For more information, contact WSU's Academic Success and Career Center to learn how to set up your account. 509-335-4015

<https://ascc.wsu.edu/>

Freeclinicdirectory.org

This website will help you find free and low-cost medical and dental care.

<http://freeclinicdirectory.org/>

Gender Identity/Expression and Sexual Orientation Resource Center (GIESORC)

GIESORC leads Washington State University's ongoing work towards an inclusive campus culture for LGBTQA students, faculty, and staff in all our locations. They promote awareness and ally development as well as providing a Friday food bank, workshops, virtual and physical resources, opportunities to work for social justice, leadership training, and support. 509-335-8841

<https://thecenter.wsu.edu/>

The Graduate School

The overall mission of the Graduate School is to advance graduate education and enhance the experience of our graduate students. We further this mission by providing service, oversight, and advocacy for all aspects of the graduate enterprise at Washington State University. 509-335-6424

<http://gradschool.wsu.edu/>

Health and Wellness Services (HWS)

Students have access to a range of health services at the only accredited outpatient medical clinic in the area. HWS has board certified physicians with expertise in college health. The medical clinic offers a pharmacy and urgent care. HWS also houses the violence prevention program and advocates from Alternatives to Violence of the Palouse are available to support you on-site. 1-509-335-3575

<https://hws.wsu.edu/>

International Student Services

International Student Services offers academic and language support, information about visas, travel, and documentation, emergency tuition support, and opportunities to connect with other international students. 509-335-4223

<https://ip.wsu.edu/on-campus/overview-2/>

The Math Learning Center

The Math Learning Center (Cleveland 130) and the computing lab in Thompson Hall (room 1) offer free tutoring for students to help you succeed in your math classes. 509-335-0844

<http://www.math.wsu.edu/studyhalls/welcome.php>

The Office of Multicultural Student Services (MSS)

The Office of Multicultural Student Services seeks to promote a campus community that fosters the holistic development of multicultural students by providing relevant services to support their academic pursuit, expressing genuine care for their personal development and well-being, advocating on their behalf and encouraging the full use of all university resources. 509-335-7852

<https://mss.wsu.edu/>

Northwest Justice Project Free Legal Hotline (CLEAR)

CLEAR is Washington State's publicly funded legal aid program. CLEAR provides free legal assistance and representation to those who qualify on the basis of income. CLEAR also maintains a website with legal education tools and materials. 1-888-201-1014.

<http://www.washingtonlawhelp.org/>

Office of the University Ombudsman

The Office of the University Ombudsman works to protect the interests, rights, and privileges of students, staff, and faculty at all levels of university operations and programs. The ombudsman is designated by the university to function as an impartial and neutral resource to assist all members of the university community. The ombudsman provides information relating to university policies and procedures and facilitates the resolution of problems and grievances through informal investigation and mediation. 509-335-1199

<http://ombudsman.wsu.edu/>

Office for Equal Opportunity (OEO)

The Office for Equal Opportunity (OEO) is responsible for investigating complaints of Discrimination, Discriminatory Harassment, Sexual Harassment, and Sexual Misconduct, and ensuring that WSU is compliant with State and Federal EEO and Affirmative Action Laws. OEO is WSU's central intake and compliance office for matters that fall under the purview of Title IX. In addition, OEO provides in-person training sessions for departments, academic units, and student living groups. 509-335-8288

<http://oee.wsu.edu/>

Palouse Free Clinic

Palouse Free Clinic provides free, high-quality healthcare to community members with an emphasis on reducing barriers to care, treating patients with dignity, and empowering patients to improve all aspects of their health and wellness.

<http://palousefreeclinic.org/>

Palouse River Counseling

Palouse River Counseling (PRC) mental health programs are licensed by the state of Washington to provide Crisis support and intervention, outpatient services, group sessions, medication management, addiction services, and youth services. 509- 334-1133 or 24 hour crisis line 1-866-871-6385

<http://www.palouserivercounseling.org/>

Planned Parenthood

Planned Parenthood offers sliding scale reproductive health care for both men and women. 1-800-230-PLAN(7526)

<http://www.plannedparenthood.org/>

Pullman Regional Hospital (PRH)

Pullman Regional Hospital's Emergency Department is open 24 hours, providing confidential care for both mental and physical health emergencies. Pullman Regional Hospital can offer care for victims of sexual assault, and can offer prophylaxis treatment and education. The Social Services department can provide emotional support and counseling and help people learn about their options and additional community resources. 509-332-2541.

<http://www.pullmanregional.org/>

Snake River Community Clinic

The Snake River Community Clinic is a Lewiston based non-profit, free medical clinic for low-income people who are uninsured or under-insured (have catastrophic coverage only). 1-208-743-5899

<http://www.srcc-freeclinic.org/>

Sojourner's Alliance

Sojourners' Alliance is a private, nonprofit organization located in Moscow, Idaho providing affordable housing, basic support services, education in life and interpersonal skills, and counseling. 208-883-3438

<http://sojournersalliance.org>

Student Accounts

Student accounts can help students solve financial problems and arrange payment plans. 509-335-9651

<http://studacct.wsu.edu/index.html>

Student Financial Services

Student Financial Services assists students in financing their college education and removing financial barriers. 509-335-9711

<http://finaid.wsu.edu/>

Student Legal Services (SLS)

SLS is a student run office created to service the legal needs for current students at Washington State University. 30 minute consultations with our attorney are available to students with a valid student ID card free of charge. 509-335-9539

<http://studentinvolvement.orgsync.com/org/sls>

TRiO /Student Support Services (SSS)

SSS offers academic support and enrichment/personal development opportunities for those who qualify. SSS also runs a food pantry and professional clothing bank that all students can access. 509-335-7324

<https://sssp.wsu.edu/>

The Undergraduate Writing Center

The Writing Center is a free, walk-in, para-professional, peer tutoring service that was created to help all undergraduates with any type of writing (liberal arts through the sciences) at any stage of the writing process (from brainstorming through drafting and final editing). All writers are welcome and no appointments are necessary. There is also an on-line option available. 509-335-1323

<http://universitycollege.wsu.edu/units/writingprogram/units/writingcenter/undergrad/>

The Office of Veterans Affairs

The WSU Office of Veterans Affairs serves the Veteran student. They are dedicated to ensuring the smooth application of your VA education benefits; while also providing information on a wide variety of Veteran services and help with any issues that the Veteran student might encounter. 509-335-1234

<http://va.wsu.edu/services/>

Whitman County Child Support and Victim/Witness program

The Whitman County Child Support and Victim/Witness program is part of the Office of the Prosecutor. They offer support and information about legal processes to victims and witnesses to crime. 509-397-5659

<http://www.whitmancounty.org/Page.aspx?pn=Prosecutor>

Whitman County Legal Services Volunteer Lawyer Program (WCLS)

Housed within Pullman's Community Action Center, this program serves income eligible Whitman County residents with civil legal issues. Services include Legal Advice Clinics, One-Time Attorney Consultations and Legal Representation. The program also provides information and referral services to all Whitman County residents. (509) 338-4255.

<http://www.cacwhitman.com/>